Numb. 7243.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 27. to Tuesday October 30. 1733.

Whitehall, October 29.

ON Saturday last about Two in the Afternoon, their Majesties and the Royal Family came from Hampton-Court to St. James's, to reside there during the Winter Season.

St. James's, October 30.

This being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth-Day, His Majesty received at Noon the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers and other Persons of Distinction. On this Occasion the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonstrations of Joy throughout London and Westminster.

London, October 29.

Yesterday Sir William Billers, Kt. Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendred to him in the accustomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-Side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges adorned with Streamers and Pendants to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, they returned by Water to Black-Friers, and from thence in Coaches with the usual Solemnity to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were present the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

Whitehall, October 30.

Whereas on Thursday the Twenty Fifth Instant, about Eight a-Clock in the Evening, several Persons forced themselves into the House of Colonel James Desromanes at Paddington, in the County of Middlesex, and robbed him of Money and other Effects to a considerable Value; and also bound, bruised and wounded him in a cruel and inhuman Manner: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such heinous Crimes, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any one of them, or to any other Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
